GHI FILES SUIT AGAINST SCHOOL BOARD; BRESLER INFLUENCE CITED

The Prince Georges County Board of Education, in a suit filed on June 27 by Greenbelt Homes, Inc., has been charged with acting arbitrarily, capriciously and in breach of its trust as a public body in selecting a Greenbelt senior high school site. The site chosen by the school board — parcel 2 (land between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and GHI property) — has been bitterly contested by the Greenbelt city council and local civic groups since its selection.

The use of this site, according to the 1,500-membership housing corporation (GHI), "will require widening of roads in residential areas not intended for such traffic and will result in the irreparable destruction and impairment of valuable property rights."

The bill of complaint for injunction, filed by GHI's special attorney, David Reich, stated that in reversing its decision to buy parcel 15 (the city-preferred Beltway-Lake site), the school board was influenced by considerations other than the public interest and by the pressures and influence which the developers (Charles Bresler, Theodore Lerner, and associates) were able to assert by reason of their ownership of both sites (parcels 2 and 15).

The school board has till July 20 to reply.

This legal action, which was joined by individual citizens, culminates a controversy which had its beginning in the fall of 1964, when the school board opened talks with the city regarding the relative merits of various sites for a senior high school.

Charges in Lawsuit

At that time, the City of Greenbelt was, according to the suit, "in the process of adopting a Master Plan for the development of the city consistent with the ideals, concepts, and vision of the President and Congress of the United States in the establishment in 1935 of the planned community of (Greenbelt)."

The suit went on: "In the Master Plan the proposed high school for the City of Greenbelt was recommended for placement on parcel 15 by reason of its location, the availability of established roads, its separation from the residential district proper with consequent less adverse effect on traffic congestion and pedestrian safety, and its proximity to existing park and other recreational facilities."

The Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission subsequently made the same recommendation with respect to parcel 15 in its Area 13 plan for the College Park-Greenbelt area.

In November 1964, the suit continued, the school board directed Mr. Thomas S. Gwynn, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, to negotiate with Bresler-Lerner for parcel 15. Unable to negotiate successfully, the school board instituted condemnation proceedings in December 1964 for the parcel 15 land.

Bresler-Lerner Proposals

These condemnation petitions, however, were never tried. Instead, according to the suit, Bresler-Lerner proposed to the school board to agree upon a price for parcel 15 "in lieu of condemnation award by the court . . . if Bresler-Lerner were assured by the city of Greenbelt that the city would raise no objection to Bresler-Lerner's application for denser zoning in parcels 1 and 2 than the Master Plan adopted by the city authorized."

At the specific request of Mr. Gwynn, meetings were held by members of the City Council with Bresler-Lerner to listen to their proposal. On October 18, 1965, the Greenbelt City Council went on record rejecting Bresler-Lerner's proposal.

Bresler-Lerner next made a proposal to the school board to transfer 55 acres in parcels 1 and 2 for a 3-school complex to include the senior high school. Bresler-Lerner, the suit said, offered to sell one-half of the acreage and to donate the other half in a manner which would result in tax benefits to Bresler-Lerner.

Without notifying the Greenbelt City Council, the school board accepted this proposal on November 30, 1965. The city and GHI protested this action, urged continuation of condemnation proceedings, and, the suit recounted, "in addition made good faith offers of parcels of land and money which (the school board) could use toward the purchase of Parcel 15."

In the subsequent months, Bresler-Lerner again proposed to agree on a price for the acreage situated in parcel 15 if, among other considerations, the City of Greenbelt would not object to Bresler-Lerner's requests for denser rezoning of parcels 1 and 2, the suit said. The City of Greenbelt and GHI would not accede to any such condition.

Subsequently, on March 24, 1966, the school board decided to purchase the parcel 2 site for the 3-school complex.

The chairman of the county school board is W. Carroll Beatty, who is a director of the Suburban Trust Company which has held the mortgages on much of Bresler's properties in Greenbelt. The county school board attorney is Paul Nussbaum, who is on the Suburban Trust Company's Advisory Committee.

City Notes

The city's program of paving internal walkways is progressing rapidly. The path through the woods between 4 and 6 cts. of Ridge is complete, with the edges of the pavement newly sodded. The city crew is currently engaged in cutting through a pedestrian path at the lower end of Olivewood Ct., leading to the bay end of the lake nearest to Charlestowne Village. The cut-through from the end of Maplewood Ct. to the lake has been temporarily postponed.

The city's allotment of the Maryland state income tax exceeded by about $10,000 the budgeted estimate. Total return to the city was $74,903.22.

When the city's tax bills are mailed out to property owners on July 1, a printed budget report will go along with them, detailing the allocation of the tax dollars for various public services. A new proposed city seal decorates the cover of the report.

Over 2600 men, women, and children used the municipal swimming pool on Thursday, June 23. This was near the record number for pool attendance. About 420 family passes have now been sold for use of the pool.

Burning Without Permit Results In Summons

A summons was issued on Tuesday to the subcontractor burning trees on the Lerner property, where the University Square Apartment development will be located. The subcontractor, a Montgomery county man named Ricketts, was charged with burning piles of timber without a permit from the city issued for that date, and with violating the terms of the city's limitations on the burning—that is, in having four piles burning at the same time instead of the two permitted by the city. While Officers Brunk and Bennett were in conversation Tuesday morning with Mr. Haney, superintendent for Lerner, a workman for Ricketts put further fuel on one of the piles. He was also served with a summons. Ricketts himself was not in attendance and his summons had not been served as of late Tuesday afternoon.

Due to the heat and other oppressive atmospheric conditions, City Manager James Giese had decided to refuse to issue any permits for burning until the winds and temperatures were more favorable.

Later in the day—around mid-afternoon—Assistant city manager Michael Fischetti made a further inspection trip to the site and found all four piles still smoldering. He conferred with Kenneth Miller, superintendent for Ricketts, who expressed his desire to cooperate in every way with the city. He immediately instructed two of his workmen to smother the fire on parcel E, directly behind the Jewish Community Center and closest to GHI homes.

The Ricketts company had a permit for burning on Monday of this week. No permit was issued for Tuesday. The developer has advised Giese that the burning will be completed in a week.

Church to Collect Funds Sunday for Indian Famine

A letter from a missionary in the famine area of India has prompted the Greenbelt Community Church to take up a special offering next Sunday. The writer, a worker supported by the church, tells of watching people die from starvation and being unable to give them food. Especially terrible is the death of the children.

A small amount of money can make the difference between life and death, and during the month of July the United Church of Christ will collect funds to help save people in India from starvation.

Teen Volunteers Needed To Help Crippled Children

The Easter Seal Society is scheduled to begin its annual swimming therapy programs for orthopedically handicapped, retarded and blind children on July 6. The program is flooded with applicants but teenage volunteers are urgently needed to act as "buddies" for the children. Teenagers, male and female, who would like to spend a little time doing something for someone else are urged to call the Easter Seal Center at 577-7222.

Fireworks Display Will Climax The Fourth of July Weekend

by Dorothy Sucher

Greenbelt's Fourth of July festivities will feature a display of fireworks on Monday night at dark on the south shore of Greenbelt Lake. The best view can be had from the north shore where the usual large crowd is expected.

The display will last about 45 minutes, cost $1,000, and end when 110 rockets are shot off in a cluster for the grand finale. The set pieces will include the traditional American flag, as well as a Double Wheel, Saxon Square, Niagra Falls, Airplane and Battleship, and others—in addition to 197 skyrockets. They will be supplied by the Zambelli Fireworks Company which furnished the fireworks for the recent White House display in honor of King Faisal of Arabia.

Council Gets Report On Bresler Suits

For undisclosed reasons, city attorneys have decided not to seek a temporary injunction to prevent the construction of an 8-story high-rise apartment on the Charles-towne tract. The city has already filed suit against the developer, Charles Bresler, for a permanent injunction.

In the other city suit pending against Bresler for conveyance of 3.3 acres of parkland, a demurrer has been filed by Bresler's attorney, Abraham Chasanow. The demurrer states that the agreement for deeding of the land is "subversive of public policy" and invalid since the city exacted a gift of land in exchange for favoring a rezoning application. The demurrer also noted that the city did not seek relief promptly, as required by law.

At last Tuesday's special council meeting, the council voted unanimously to initiate a police investigation of the misplaced letter which the developer sent by registered mail last Christmas notifying the city of plans to construct a high-rise apartment. The city manager was also instructed to refer the matter to the postal authorities. City officials have not been able to locate the letter, which was signed for by an employee who no longer remembers the matter.

In other action, the council voted to restrict left-hand turns from Breezewood Drive to Edmonston Road during weekdays from 7 to 9 a.m. Council also passed a resolution declaring a need for acquisition of the parkland around Greenbelt Lake, by condemnation if necessary. Council took official cognizance of its new policy of no longer maintaining the service courts of Greenbelt Homes, Inc., by adopting a resolution. From now on, the city will only maintain off-street parking facilities located on formally dedicated public right-of-ways or city-owned property.

Local Credit Union Given Thrift Award

The Greenbelt Federal Credit Union again received the Bureau of Federal Credit Union's Thrift Honor Award and won a place on the Bureau's Thrift Honor Roll for 1965. The award is presented by the Bureau to Federal Credit unions that achieve share savings growth among the highest in their particular age group. The share growth criteria for credit unions in GFCU's age group is 18 percent. In 1965, which was one of the credit union's best years, according to Treasurer Joseph D. Comproni, GFCU's share growth was 35 percent. This is the third year in a row that GFCU has received the award.

The Greenbelt Federal Credit Union was organized in 1937, the first organization to bring financial service to the then new community. Initially, the field of membership consisted primarily of Greenbelt residents. The field of membership has been expanded, however, and now includes members of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., who are affiliated with operations of GCS in the Greenbelt, Takoma Park, Piney Branch, and Pen-Mar store areas. In October, 1965, a service center of the GFCU was opened in the Takoma Consumers Discount Supermarket to serve GCS members of the Takoma Park and Piney Branch store areas.

Extra policemen will be stationed at the lake to direct traffic and patrol the crowd. City Manager James Giese reminds the public that alcoholic beverages are prohibited, as is the use of fireworks by spectators.

Several refreshment stands operated by the Disabled American Veterans will offer soft drinks and snacks.

Walk If Possible

A limited number of parking spaces will be available on Crescent Road, in Boxwood Village, and at the small lakeside parking lot. However, Giese recommends that residents walk to the lake if they can, to avoid the traditional traffic jam.

Several new pathways will make the trek easier. The walkway between 4 and 6 courts of Ridge leads to Lakeside Dr., where pedestrians can proceed left one block to Olivewood and take a brand-new path (scheduled for completion this weekend). It will lead to the city parkland at the end of the bay, from which pedestrians can follow the south shore of the lake and cross the dam to the viewing area. High heels are not recommended for this route.

Another route leaves Crescent Rd. opposite Greenhill Rd. and follows a gravel path along the north shore of the lake.

Weekend Events

Athletic events scheduled for the Fourth of July weekend include softball and tennis tournaments and a swimming meet.

At the third Greenbelt Fourth of July softball tournament six teams, all front-runners in various softball leagues from Prince Georges and Montgomery counties, will compete for a trophy. The games will be played at Braden Field on Saturday, July 2, from 1 p.m. until about 10 p.m.; all day Sunday; and on Monday, when the finals are scheduled.

Entries are still being received for the tennis tournament, which will start on Saturday morning. The games will be played all day Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and Monday morning, with finals held Monday afternoon. Medals will be awarded to the winners.

The swimming meet starts at 10 a.m. on Monday, July 4, and is open to all Greenbelt children. Swimmers will be divided by age into classes ranging from 6-and-under to 18, and will compete in various swimming strokes.

SWIM TEAM NEWS

Very real personal efforts on the part of all concerned will be required to snatch victory from the tough Oxon Hill team, Southern Division champions of 1965, if Greenbelt wants to maintain its own winning ways. Good luck to Greenbelt's 1965 Northern Division champions. The first dual meet of the new season will take place at Oxon Hill's new 50 meter pool at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday July 2. The team leaves for Oxon Hill not later than 7:45 a.m.; bring swimming muscles. Officials will leave with the team.

GFCU has assets of over $900,000. Dividends have been paid every year since the credit union opened for business. President of GFCU Benjamin Rosenzweig has announced a dividend increase from the previous annual rate of 4½ percent to an annual rate of 4.8 percent. Dividends are paid semi-annually and the new rate applies to the dividend period which ended June 30.

No Room In The Pool

Every child should learn to swim—a dictum as hard to oppose as Motherhood or Virtue.

Nevertheless, at the Greenbelt Recreation Department's registration June 27 for summer programs, the 220 openings in the classes for beginning swimmers were promptly filled, and 60 applicants had to wait.

It is true the unlucky 60 were allowed to register for the second session two weeks from now. Nevertheless, it is simple arithmetic that 60 of the 220 youngsters who were able to register for the first session will therefore have to drop out of the second. Not many beginners can learn to swim in two weeks; for many of them, two entire summers would be more realistic.

Greenbelt's population is growing rapidly and the demand for swimming lessons is sure to increase. When 20% of the children who want to learn to swim are turned away, it's time to look for remedies.

At present, lessons are given in four sessions from 9 a.m. to noon, and the pool is left empty for cleaning and staff lunches until it opens to the public at 1 p.m. Perhaps with extra staff and staggered lunch periods, a fifth session might be offered during this hour, thus increasing the capacity of the swim program by 25%. This would help, at least for a while.

Paying the salaries of the staff needed to teach the extra classes and to clean the pool in the early morning would cost a lot less than building another pool—which looks like the only real solution.

Permit to Poison

To the Editor:

A stranger coming into Greenbelt and giving poison to its citizens would be arrested immediately to prevent him from causing additional harm. However, a land developer, also a stranger, coming into Greenbelt and burning trees indiscriminately to poison the air which people breathe, is not arrested to prevent him from causing additional harm, especially to people with heart and chest conditions.

The county is an ally to this stranger, as it has given him a permit to burn trees and to pollute the air with seemingly no restrictions. The city has gone through the motions of trying to control the burning in a very ineffective way . . . but has not prevented or abated this practice.

Only a united effort by all citizens of Greenbelt can exert enough pressure on their elected officials to have them pass an ordinance to protect all of us from such callous and dangerous actions by developers. An overflow crowd at the next council meeting will show that we are interested in protecting our health as much as we are interested in protecting our property from zoning threats.

Reply to American Legion

To the Editor:

In his reply on behalf of the American Legion Mr. Pilski stated that the Legion was not opposed to the position of the Greenbelt Committee for Peace in Vietnam, but was instead "supporting our country." This reply completely avoided the issue.

The issue is whether supporting the war is the same as supporting our country. The Peace Committee holds that because the war is a criminal attack upon the people of Vietnam, its continuance is directly contrary to the interest of the majority of the American people who give their lives, do the work, pay inflated prices, and pay the taxes. Therefore to patriotically support our country, meaning to act in the interest of the majority of the Americans, requires a resolute opposition to the war.

When will the American Legion face the issue squarely and explain why it believes that supporting the war is the same as supporting our country?

City Recreation Programs Are Getting Underway

Nearly a thousand registrations were made this week for Greenbelt's summer recreation programs, which offer a variety of activities for children and adults. Registration took place last Monday, June 27, at the Greenbelt Youth Center, where a line began forming in the early morning and had stretched as far as the swimming pool by the time the doors opened at 9 a.m.

Everyone who applied for intermediate and advanced swimming classes was accepted, but classes for beginners and advanced beginners filled up rapidly. Latecomers were able to register for the second session, which will begin in two weeks, and a list of classes has been posted at the pool. Payment for the second session of swimming lessons may be made at the pool cashier's desk.

A few openings still remain in the tennis, archery, and T League programs, and late registrants may apply at the Youth Center.

Five two-week sessions for the various activities are scheduled this summer, with registration dates to be announced. Swimming tests will be given at the end of each session.

Summer Playgrounds

The city also offers three summer playgrounds at the Center School, the Springhill Lake Community Building, and the North End School (the last being co-sponsored by the Prince Georges County Recreation Department). This week, 300 children registered for these programs of supervised play, which include games, nature study, arts and crafts, and other activities.

Registration, which consists of giving the child's name, address, and telephone number, may be made any time during the summer. The only cost is for materials used in crafts projects.

These playgrounds are open from 7 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 5 p.m., and children from 6 to 18 are welcome to attend as often as they wish.

Gerton-Temple

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gerton, 4-A Ridge Rd., announce the marriage of their daughter, Janet Sue, to Damon C. Temple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Temple, of College Park, on Wednesday, June 22.

Rabbi Kaplan of Temple Beth Tol, Belair Md., officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The couple will reside in Greenbelt.

Elaine Skolnik — 474-6060

Sid Barnett and Jack Sanders won a clear-cut victory in last Friday's duplicate bridge session. Their score of 46 points was 7 points greater than those of Jule Churchill and Carolyn Bailey. Third place went to Adelaide and Ed Kaighn. Next game: Friday, July 8.

Jimmy Brown, 5-A Ridge, enlisted in the United States Air Force. He received his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Recreation Review

by Richard Steveson
Director of Recreation

Summer fun is in full swing, as the Recreation Department held its first registration for various activities. Four more registrations days will be scheduled during the summer, so if you missed the first, try, try again.

Playgrounds

Three playgrounds are in operation in the city this summer at Center School, North End School and the Springhill Lake Community Building. The buildings are open from 9 to 12 noon and 1 - 4 p.m. for children 6 to 18 years of age. Activities will include sports, nature study, arts and crafts, games and contests. North End will hold its first Family Night tonight, Thursday, at 7 p.m. This will be a Bike Rodeo. Registration is free and the only charge will be for materials used in the craft projects.

Roller Skating

On Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 to 10:30 a.m. in the Youth Center, a roller skating program will be held for all school-age children. The fee is the same as during the school year.

Men's Summer Basketball

The Men's Summer Basketball League is asking for interested residents to sign up at the Youth Center or call the Department, 474-6878. Games will be played on Thursday evenings at the Youth Center.

Weight-Lifting

The interest shown in the Weight-Lifting Club, and the cooperation of citizens, has been most appreciated. The club room at the Youth Center is open from 1 to 5:30 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m.

Handball Court

Lights have been installed on the handball court behind the swimming pool for evening basketball, tennis practice or handball.

Fourth of July

The Annual Fourth of July Men's Slow-Pitch Tournament will begin at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 2, on Braden Field, and will run through Monday, July 4. Some of the best teams in the Washington area will compete for trophies. A tennis tournament will also begin on Sunday morning, July 2, and run over the week-end. Divisions will be Boys' and Girls' Singles and Men's Singles and Doubles. Trophies will be awarded. Spectators are cordially invited. On Monday, July 4, at 10 a.m., all boys and girls who like to swim are invited to enter a swim meet at the Greenbelt Municipal Swimming Pool.

Holmes-Houlton

The engagement is announced of Mary Anna Holmes, daughter of Mrs. John E. Holmes and the late Mr. Holmes of Annapolis, Md., and Graham Bradley Houlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Houlton of College Park, Md.

Miss Holmes, a graduate of Wells College, is employed by Group Hospitalization in Washington, D.C. Mr. Houlton, who attended Washington College and the University of Maryland, is connected with the Virginia Paper Company. An October wedding is planned.

LITTLE LEAGUERS

by Jerry W. Shafer

LEAGUE STANDINGS

National League
	Won	Lost
Tigers	10	4
Indians	5	9
Lions	4	10
Cardinals	3	12

American League
	Won	Lost
Athletics	10	3
Cubs	8	3
Giants	8	4
Orioles	5	8

I saw some happy faces in the Minor League when the new shirts were distributed to every boy. Our hats are off to the three managers and the boys of the Minor League for this fine program, as well as the sponsors, The Greenbelt Fire Department and the Greenbelt Federal Credit Union.

The Little Leaguers are hard at it down at MacDonald Field. The D.A.V. Tigers, coached by Lonnie Palmer, have a good lead in the National League, but the American League is still up for grabs. Any team can still win the pennant, which means a lot of interesting games before the season is over.

Don't forget the game Friday night at Braden Field, under the lights. The Tigers play the Cubs at 8 p.m. and it will be a fine game to watch. And there's a game every evening at 6 at MacDonald Field. Come out and cheer for your favorite team.

Catholic Club Plans Trip

The Catholic Club of Greenbelt is sponsoring a holiday trip to Point Lookout, Maryland, on July 2-4. Activities in the rustic atmosphere will include beach fun, historical tours and hikes. Reservations are limited. Be sure to contact Joe Hanyok (474-6069) before Friday, June 24.

Labor Day Festival

All organizations wishing to participate in the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival MUST submit their requests by July 6, 1966. Representatives from all interested Greenbelt organizations are asked to attend a meeting on Wednesday, July 6, at 8 p.m. at the Youth Center, or to submit a detailed letter to the Festival Committee, Box 2, Greenbelt, Md., before that date.

...with the new electric
service

Once you order this service, there is nothing further to do. Not even change a bulb. We install your "Light Watchman" light. We take care of all maintenance. And we provide all the electricity (on an unmetered basis). The sun turns the light off in the morning... the darkness turns it on at night, so you can lengthen your days outdoors... relax with your family in safety indoors... and sleep soundly at night.
Cost? As little as $4 per light per month (depending on the lamp wattage).

For the complete story of "Light Watchman" service, call 628-0389, 628-0506, 628-0617, or mail this handy coupon.
